Greetings to Exhibitors

Dear exhibitors,

Warmly welcome our global community of innovators and collaborators to CACLP 2026 in Xiamen, China!

The 23rd China International In Vitro Diagnostic Expo and the 6th China IVD Supply Chain Expo to be held from 21st to 23rd March 2026 will further connect global IVD professionals, promote technical exchange and innovation in the global in vitro diagnostics field, and create a high-quality IVD community worldwide.

"Bringing IVD people together!" embodies our commitment to always foster unity and progress within the industry. In a society evolving at an unprecedented pace, the role of clinical laboratories and in vitro diagnostics has never been more pivotal. You and your companies are not merely showcasing products; you are also contributors to a transformative narrative that shapes the future of healthcare industry.

The 13th China IVD Industry Development Conference (CAIVD), the 11th China Experimental Medicine Conference (CPCEM), the 2nd China AI and Digital Medicine Conference (CAIDM) and a myriad of forums and sessions will be held parallel to the exhibition from 21st to 23rd March in the International Expo Center. These events encompass not only industrial as well as the academic topics. The Convergence of Laboratory Medicine & In Vitro Diagnostics will provide the whole community an opportunity to deepen the dialogue, explore emerging trends, and foster collaborations that drive the industry forward together.

Wish you a very fruitful event and pleasant trip to China, and see you in Xiamen!

Yours sincerely,
CACLP Team
